Forecast For Tayside, Central & Fife
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 10 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Bright start. Turning wet and windy.

Today:
A mainly dry and bright start with a few sunny spells around Dundee and into Angus. However, cloud soon thickening with rain developing through the Trossachs. This rain spreading to all parts in the afternoon, heavy at times. Strengthening winds. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy with outbreaks of rain this evening, heavy at times, with strong winds and coastal gales. Drier and clearer conditions returning later in the night. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Thursday:
Angus mainly dry and bright with some sunny spells. Showers elsewhere, these heavy and frequent at times and falling as snow over the hills. Cold westerly winds. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Cold and windy with showers during Friday, although drier and brighter in the east. Winds easing over the weekend with bright spells and showers, frost and ice risk at night.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.